

Kansas
2021 AG SUMMIT
GROW SMARTER. GROW STRONGER. GROW KANSAS.

Specialty Livestock: Sharing Resources and Networks Across Species

Wednesday, July 14, 2021

6:00–7:30 p.m.

Welcome	Kansas Department of Agriculture
Sector Overview	Kerry Wefald, KDA Agricultural Marketing
General Camelid Information	Dr. Emily Reppert K-State College of Veterinary Medicine Small Ruminants and Camelids
Care of Specialty Livestock	Dr. Alison Crane K-State Research & Extension Specialist, Sheep & Goat
Rabbit Production: Husbandry and Welfare	Dr. Sarah Gardhouse K-State College of Veterinary Medicine Exotic Pet, Wildlife and Zoological Medicine
Producer Roundtable	Dana Ladner, Moderator, KDA Agricultural Marketing
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amy & Matt Benz, Benz Rambouillet, St. Marys• Shirley & Larry Plumlee, Plumlee Buffalo Ranch, Alma• Sharon Heimes, Manna Meadows Alpacas, Bonner Springs• George Elder, Elderslie Farm, Kechi
Questions from Chat Submissions	Tori Laird, KDA Agricultural Marketing
Industry Sector Needs	Shirley Acedo, KDA Agricultural Marketing
Session Adjournment	Kerry Wefald, KDA Agricultural Marketing

Thank You

Register now for the Ag Growth Summit: Thursday, Aug. 26, 2021

www.agriculture.ks.gov/Summit